

Your HOA's Best Choice for Superior Legal Representation

Experts in all facets of common interest development law and litigation, the attorneys at Hughes Gill Cochrane Tinetti, PC provide complete legal representation for community associations. Hundreds of homeowner associations and community association managers trust HGCT to expertly handle their complex and varied legal needs.

HOA Governance & Transactions

HGCT provides comprehensive general legal services for community associations and are experienced in every aspect of operations, governance, maintenance, and financing. Their attorneys are fully conversant with all issues related to California's Davis-Stirling Act, governing documents, statutory requirements, and best practices.

Construction Defects

Maximizing recovery is the key to a successful construction defect claim. HGCT pursues every possibility, discovers every problem, and fights to obtain every dollar to which their clients are entitled. And they don't stop there – maximizing recovery is only the beginning. They offer extensive post-recovery services which maximize the economic benefit of the recovery. They are there from start to finish, every step of the way, to ensure a complete, cohesive and comprehensive handling of every construction defect and reconstruction scenario.

About HGCT

Headquartered in Walnut Creek, HGCT is a California law firm, with Bay Area roots, and strong local relationships. They focus exclusively on clients in the greater Northern California area and each of their attorneys is a recognized expert in community association law. They have more than a dozen attorneys who combined have more than 250 years of collective practice experience representing this specialized area. Their attorneys regularly serve as featured speakers at industry educational programs at the local, state and national level and author articles and reference materials to assist community associations in meeting their extensive legal obligations.
